

Patricia Vasbinder

Consultant

---

Patricia Vasbinder has 25 years senior management experience in the business and not-for-profit sectors, during which time she was the architect of national and international quality management initiatives. In addition, she created nationally disseminated models to coalesce corporate and community leadership in behalf of critical community needs.

Ms. Vasbinder was Vice President and Chief Operating Officer of the New Hampshire Charitable Foundation, one of the country's largest community foundations with assets over $230 million. Prior to being named Chief Operating Officer, she served as the Foundation's Chief Financial Officer. Before joining the Charitable Foundation, Ms. Vasbinder was a Vice President of Citibank. She currently serves as a coach to non-profit CEOs, and as a consultant on business planning and organizational development.

Ms. Vasbinder has served as director of numerous non-profit organizations in the arts and economic development, as well as those working to assist low-income individuals achieve economic independence. She most recently has served as Chair of the Concord Community Music School Board of Trustees, Incorporator of the Capital Center for the Arts, Director of the New Hampshire Community Loan Fund, and member of the national advisory council of the Friends of Women's Rights National Park. She was a founding Director of Quality Care Partners, a paraprofessional healthcare cooperative in New Hampshire.

Ms. Vasbinder is a Phi Beta Kappa graduate of Bucknell University, and earned a M. Ed. from the College of William and Mary. She has served on the faculty of the Consumer Bankers Association Graduate School of Bank Management at the University of Virginia, and the Pacific Coast Banking School at the University of Washington.

Ms. Vasbinder and her husband, Victor Montana, live in New Hampshire in the winter, and on the coast of Maine the rest of the time. Ms. Vasbinder skis in the winter, and sails her little cat boat, "Sweet Pea", in the summer. When not functioning as an over-achiever, she dotes on her grandchildren: Rebecca-the-Perfect, Eleanor-the-Magnificent, Julia-the-Invincible, Jack-the-Great and Sam-the-Splendid. She also enjoys Drum and Bugle Corps competitions (of which there are nearly none in New England), and dairy goat shows (better luck on that one).